ePUB PDF In Defense Of Decadent Europe

Europe's alleged economic decadence is an equally common trope: laissez faire capitalism is always better, State intervention always inefficient, and the welfare state is certainly making Europeans spoilt and lazy. Here American ultra-capitalist ideology plays a heavy role and one can cite the usual wiseman-dunces like Fareed Zakaria (who on this basis declared "the decline and fall of ...

In Defense of Decadent Europe - Taylor & Francis
Aron, the French sociologist-historian, writes two kinds of books, scholarly studies and polemical tracts. This one is clearly Aron engaged and serious. Writing in 1976, he employs a familiar technique in arguing for something European-style liberal capitalism ("mixed economy") by attacking something else: the Soviet Union. This technique only makes sense in the context of ...

The title is ironic, for this is a defense not of decadent but of liberal Europe. Aron concedes Europe's problems and he analyzes their scope and effect acutely. He believes, however, that they are episodic, not symptoms of decline, and he challenges the West to face realities-to dismiss Marxist promises of salvation and acknowledge the superiority and strength of free societies.
