During his childhood, Yew Shodkin's little voice comes in the form of an egot, a small creature that lives in his imagination. Its voice is not positive, instead it's like a devil on Yew's shoulder, pleading for him to rebel. "'You think that a little creature lives in your brain?' he finally asked.

The Little Voice by Joss Sheldon review | Striking 13

Rebellion Can Be A Positive Thing. It tells you that you're greater than or less than others. It makes you feel not good enough. It's that telling you that you are damaged goods. The ego takes on the limiting beliefs that you've inherited from childhood or just living in societal reality.

Rebellion Can Be A Positive Thing - Everyday Gyaan

The voice actor is amazing and thanks to this I finished the book, which changed so much in so many occasions that it feels to me that finishing one book I started five. Im so confused about the moral of the story that I will ironically have to take the author's advice and I find appropriate.
